

Message from the CISF Chief

Holi Greetings

I convey my greetings and best wishes to all members of the force and their families on the auspicious occasion of Holi festival. May the festival of colour bring happiness in the lives of all members of the force and their families.

The festival also marks the triumph of good over evil. The Holi is celebrated with vibrant colours of joy, love and unity that fill our lives with happiness.

I, once again wish that the festival of colours would bring joy and peace in the life of all the force personnel and their family members.

Jai Hind.
