

New Year Message from the Director General

I feel extremely privileged, as Director General, CISF, to extend my heartfelt wishes to the entire CISF family for a very Happy and Prosperous New Year – 2026.

The year gone by was challenging, yet highly successful for the Force. On the operational front, CISF rose to new heights with the induction of larger and more challenging units. Our officers and personnel accepted these responsibilities with dedication and professionalism, successfully inducting major airports such as Navi Mumbai and Jewar Airports into the CISF security framework. Securing Recognized Security Organisation (RSO) status for port security in India stands as a landmark achievement in CISF's evolution.

The year also witnessed several new initiatives, both in the welfare and operational spheres. CISF significantly reduced the eligibility criteria and enhanced the disbursement amounts across major welfare funds for Force members, resulting in a substantial boost to morale. Operationally, several internal reforms were undertaken to optimize human resource utilization and further improve the quality of services delivered to our diverse client profile. The endeavours to make the Force Battle ready and organisation of first Coastal Cyclothon stand out.

On this occasion, I bow in reverence to the brave martyrs who laid down their lives for the security of the nation and its citizens. Their unwavering devotion to duty, exceptional courage and supreme sacrifice will endure forever in our collective memory. I offer my heartfelt prayers for the well-being of their next of kin and reaffirm our commitment to extend the best possible support and compensation to their families. The Force shall remain eternally indebted to their supreme sacrifice.

As we step into the New Year, I hope it brings greater happiness to our lives and added glory to the Force. I urge every member of CISF to continue giving their best, enhance their knowledge and skills and serve the nation with pride, integrity and dedication.

Once again, I extend my warm wishes to all members of the CISF family for a very Happy and Prosperous New Year – 2026.

Jai Hind !
