

Message from the Director General

I extend my warmest wishes to each one of you and your families for the New Year. The year 2023 has been a testament of our resilience, dedication and unwavering commitment towards our mission of securing the critical infrastructures of this great nation. In the face of challenges, you have demonstrated unparalleled courage, discipline and professionalism, thereby upholding the values of CISF with great resolve.

As we step into 2024, let us embrace the opportunities it brings for growth and excellence. Your sacrifices and tireless efforts have been the backbone of our success, contributing significantly to the security and well-being of our nation. In the coming year, I encourage each one of you to explore new horizons, both professionally and personally and to continue embodying the spirit of our Force.

Together, let us face the future with optimism and determination. Your commitment to our mission is commendable and I look forward to the same commitment with increased vigour to prepare ourselves for the year 2024.

Wishing you all and your families a New Year filled with positivity and prosperity.

Jai Hind!
