

Independence Day message from the Director General

On the momentous occasion of 78th Independence Day, I extend my warmest greetings and best wishes to CISF personnel and their families.

Today, we stand united in honouring the sacrifices of our forefathers, our martyrs and the unwavering dedication of those who have tirelessly worked to secure the liberty we cherish. This day is not just a celebration of our freedom, but a solemn reminder of our responsibilities. It is a moment to renew our commitment to serve the nation with utmost integrity and dedication.

In an era marked by unprecedented challenges and rapidly evolving security paradigm, our mission to safeguard the nation's critical infrastructure becomes more crucial than ever. Through our relentless pursuit of professional excellence, we must continue to uphold the safety and security of our fellow citizens.

As we look towards the future, let us embody the spirit of unity and perseverance that has brought us this far. Our collective efforts will undoubtedly pave the way for a more secure, prosperous, and resilient India. Let us strive to uphold the highest standards of duty and honour, ensuring that our nation stands proud in the global arena.

On this special day, I wish all of you, happiness, health, and success. Together, let us work towards a better and safer nation.

Jai Hind !

(Anish Dayal Singh)
Director General