

MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR GENERAL

Warm Greetings for the New Year!

It is with great pride and gratitude that I write to you today as the newly appointed Director General of Central Industrial Security Force (CISF). It is an honour to lead such a distinguished Force that has consistently exhibited the core values of integrity, professionalism, and dedication. As we embark on this journey together, I call upon you to rise to the challenges that lie ahead while upholding our cherished values. Our commitment to honesty, transparency, and ethical conduct should serve as a shining example for others to follow.

CISF has come a long way since its birth in 1969 and today it is known as a multifaceted, highly professional and tech-savvy modern force committed to the protection and security of our critical national assets and vital economic infrastructure across the country. The only Force with a dedicated Fire Wing it has also developed specialised personal protection capabilities. Today it is marching ahead in providing security in new domains like Prisons.

In this era of Artificial Intelligence, rapid technological advancements and ever-changing security threats, it is crucial that we embrace innovation and leverage the power of technology, intelligence and collaboration to tackle emerging threats with renewed vigour and determination. It shall be my endeavour to enhance the core competencies of CISF to adapt to the changing security scenario and mitigate potential threats.

As we work towards facing the new security challenges with unwavering determination, I consider the welfare of the force personnel and their families of paramount importance. We must engage to create a conducive work environment that supports the well-being of the members of the force and their families.

On this occasion, I salute the brave CISF personnel who sacrificed their lives in the line of duty. Let us recommit ourselves to our duty to uphold the values for which they laid down their lives.

I once again convey my personal best wishes and warm greetings to all members of the Force and their families.

I keenly look forward to your active support and cooperation.

Jai Hind!

(Nina Singh)
Director General