Jawan rescues girl stuck at Metro station

New Delhi: A CISF jawan rescued a 10-year-old girl who was stuck in an iron grill installed at a height outside the Nirman Vihar metro station, officials said on Monday. The incident took place around 6 pm on Sunday after the girl climbed up the 20-foot-high grill erected along the stairs of Gate No 1 of the station, taking assistance of the wall. The Central Industrial Security Force (CISF) is deployed to provide a counter-terrorist cover to over 130 Metro stations in the Delhi-NCR, which witness a daily footfall of about six-seven lakh passengers. A video of the incident was shared widely.
