CISF man saves passenger at Metro station

New Delhi: A woman's life was saved due to alertness and prompt action by a CISF personnel, who pulled her away as she was standing at the edge of the platform at a Metro station, officials said on Monday. The incident took place on Saturday evening at Arthla Metro station, they said.

"On January 7 at 5.46 pm, inspector Sanjeev Kumar Sharma of CISF noticed a woman passenger, who was standing dangerously close to the edge of the platform after crossing the yellow strip. A metro train heading towards Rithala was approaching the platform. Inspector Sanjeev Sharma tried to warn the woman, but due to close proximity to the approaching train and ensuing noise, she could not listen to the warning," said a CISF official.

Sharma swiftly acted and pulled the woman away. TNN
