4 CISF women officers serving as IGs, a pivotal shift toward gender equality

STATESMAN NEWS SERVICE
NEW DELHI, 30 JUNE

The Central Industrial Security Force (CISF) is marking a historic moment for women empowerment within its ranks, with four serving women officers holding the position of Inspector General level, which is for the first time in the force's history.

This means that women officers comprise 50 per cent of the IG-rank amongst the cadre officers, underscoring a pivotal shift towards gender equality in the CAPF's leadership. The milestone is part of a broader, concerted effort by the CISF to promote women and foster an inclusive environment.
